

The danger of not seeing

Jun Togo

N.B

The theme of this picture book is NOT about physical color blindness but about the psychological illusions caused by good and evil.

There once was a girl who never took off a pair of glasses. Her glasses were the magical glasses that turned every colour into black and white.

When she was walking, something hit her.

A tree branch was there!

It seems that brown branches are sometimes hard to be seen due to the glasses that lose colour.

Suddenly she had a sharp pain in her leg.

Thorns have pricked it.

It seems that green thorns are sometimes hard to be seen due to the glasses that lose colour.

Suddenly she fell down.

A river flows.

It seems that blue water is sometimes hard to be seen due to the glasses that lose colour.

Suddenly she stepped on something soft.

A child was there.

It seems that children are sometimes hard to be seen due to the glasses that lose colour.

Suddenly a man came to attack her.

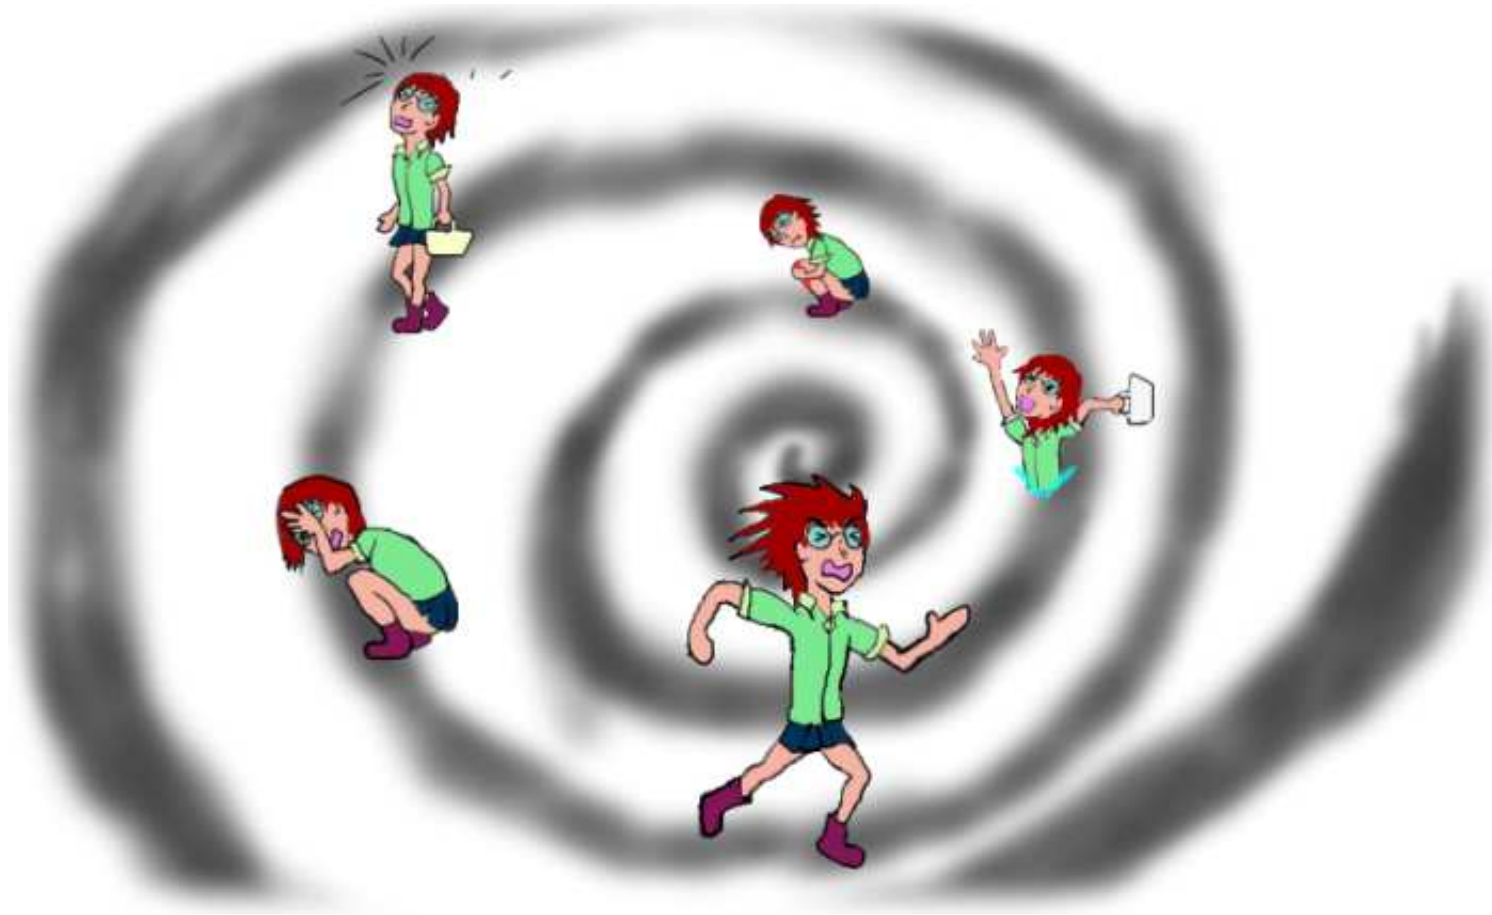

An abrupt attack like this... what a dangerous world it is!

The father whose child was stepped on was angry.

It seems that others' feelings are sometimes hard to be seen for her due to the glasses that lose colour.

As seen on the above, her life is full of suffering.

She doesn't know the reasons. She cannot see why these things keep happening to her due to the glasses that lose colour.

She is in fear today too.

Afterword – The danger of not seeing

There seems to be so many illusions related to the 'good and evil' ideology. These illusions tend to cause various tragedies that cause millions of people to suffer. (Please refer to my book, Good and Evil Addiction).

I have written this picture book with this illusion as the theme with the aim of reducing such tragedies.
